Thank You, Mr. Undersecretary!

A.J. Yates retired as undersecretary in January 2007 after working for no fewer than four agency secretaries at the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA).

Following three decades of farming in Fresno County, Yates started his second career — as a public servant — at CDFA in 1991. He worked for secretaries Henry Voss, Ann Veneman and William (Bill) Lyons Jr. until 2000. Following that, he was tapped by then-U.S. Department of Agriculture Secretary Veneman as administrator of the federal agency's Agricultural Marketing Service. Yates returned to CDFA in 2004 under Secretary A.G. Kawamura.

A.J. Yates is one of the leading statesmen of California agriculture — a rare talent with a deep, intuitive understanding of both farming and government.

Thank you, A.J., for your vision and leadership.

We wish you all the best!
