

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FOOD & AGRICULTURE

Karen Ross, Secretary

California Code of Regulations Pertaining to the Protection of Bees

The State of California has adopted regulations pertaining to the protection of bees. These regulations are managed and enforced by the California Department of Pesticide Regulation.

For more information, go to: http://www.cdpr.ca.gov/docs/legbills/calcode/chapter_.htm

California Code of Regulations, Title 3 (Agriculture)

Division 6. Pesticide and Pest Control Operations

Subchapter 6. Pollinator Protection

Article 1. Protection of Bees

Section 6980. Pesticides Toxic to Bees

Section 6981. Vector Control Exemption

Section 6982. Apiary Operator Request for Notification

Section 6983. Notification to Apiary Operators

Section 6984. Citrus/Bee Protection Area