To: Inedible Kitchen Grease (IKG) Transporters, Collection Centers and Renderers

Your 2019 IKG Transporter registration, Collection Center license, or Renderer license renewal applications are enclosed. Your registration or license application renewal, along with required paperwork and payment, are due to the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA) by December 1, 2018 (Please allow approximately three weeks to process all paperwork). If you do not have 2019 decals on your vehicles and trailers by December 31, 2018, you cannot use these vehicles to collect and transport IKG and will be in violation if you continue to operate without a current registration or license. Any applications received after December 31, 2018, will incur a late fee in addition to normal registration/license fees.

2019 Fee Changes

- The Renderer General and IKG Enforcement fee increased from $3,000.00 to $7,000.00
- The Collection Center fee increased from $1,500.00 to $3,500.00
- The IKG-C Registration fee increased from $100.00 to $250.00
- The IKG-C Enforcement fee increased from $300.00 to $500.00
- The IKG-P Registration fee increased from $100.00 to $250.00
- The IKG-P Enforcement fee increased from $75.00 to $125.00

The following items are REQUIRED to process your enclosed renewal registration packet:

- 2019 application with current information and all applicable boxes completed
- Type of grease transported MUST be checked
- Current certificate of liability insurance coverage with the amount applicable to the number of vehicles and/or gross vehicle weight rate (CDFA needs a copy of declaration page or ACORD 25 form)
- If you hold multiple licenses, make sure all pertinent applications are completed.
- Send a 2019 list of all registered vehicles with year, make, model, license plate numbers and identify truck or trailer (Note: There are additional requirements when adding new vehicles)

If the items above are not received with the renewal registration packet, CDFA WILL NOT issue 2019 decals until all required information is provided.

Please contact the number on the first page if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Laura Barlow", with a large, stylized flourish at the end.
